On the Basics of this Ministry

TOPIC	EXPLANATION	NOTES
On the Identity of this Ministry	The name of God's chosen ministry is Israel. In the early parts of the Old Testament, we simply have a record of Israel's history. It's not until Isaiah, according to 42:6, 49:6, and 51:4, that the call of Israel surfaces. The main reason Israel has yet to get set up is because there were some preliminary matters that were needed to get taken care of before Israel would get launched.	Government, the Torah, the cross and the partial hardening were necessary time periods before Israel came onto the scene to stay into perpetuity.
On the Location of this Ministry	God had purposely given Abraham the land that borders three continents, Asia, Europe and Africa, making it the land that sits in the center of the Earth. It does make sense that the chosen leader in the world would sit in the center of the Earth.	The land that Lebanon, Syria, Gaza and possibly parts of Jordan sit on will fall into the hands of Israel.
On the Role of this Ministry	With God being invisible, and without a God-ordained central, visible figure leading the body of Christ, the bride is not going to prepare herself for the bridegroom. Christendom, at present, has splintered into all sorts of directions, and without divine intervention, the situation is only going to get worse. Jesus coming back is not the answer because the bride won't be handed off to the bridegroom until she has made herself ready, according to Revelation 19:7. We readily accept the present structure of God's work in the Earth as normal because this is the time we lived in.	During the time of the Judges, the children of Israel strayed, strayed and strayed some more, probably due to there not being a king in the middle leading them. The ἐκκλησία ^{1a} has not had a central figure as the leader.
On the Length of this Ministry	Israel, according to Jeremiah 31:35-36, will not cease to be a nation, meaning Israel will play a role in God's work from here on out. The supercontinent in the Apocalypse spells out many millions of years. Those in the body of Christ across the globe in the early part of the 21st century don't even speak of 100s of years, let alone thousands or millions of years. For the time being, let's just say that Israel will be sitting in the center of the Earth into perpetuity.	The number of nations in Deuteronomy 32:8 numbers into the millions. One of God's thrills is saving people, so God wants to save people for many millions upon millions of years.
On the Extent of this Ministry	A nation's judicial power reaching to the ends of the Earth is a foreign concept to those in the early part of the 21st century. It's something that will take some time to getting used to. And it's only a matter of time when the entire globe will be able to speak the modern languages.	The incoming era is going to be better than the era we're coming out of, which will be due to having better direction.
Do you have any idea what the application of a light to the nations is comprised of?

^{1a} ἐκκλησία, the Greek word for "church," includes the Messianic Synagogues and churches in Christianity.

On the Basics of this Ministry

TOPIC	EXPLANATION	NOTES
On the Requirements of this Ministry	The Jews will have to get the reigns of the ἐκκλησία, and the Gentiles will need to be willing to follow. Look what the twelve disciples did. Since the Jews will be in the lead, the Jews will need to be congregated in Israel, saved, and Torah Observant. I am of the persuasion that the Jews can start getting the reigns of the ἐκκλησία in my day.	The Messianics will get control of Israel, preferably before the temple is built. Would the temple get built right now, the Orthodox would get control of it.
On the Timing of this Ministry	What we know right now is that Israel is in the process of getting established. There probably is not a way to increase the speed of preparation. Be it as it is, there are things we could to prepare for the incoming age like getting acquainted with the Torah and getting to know the Messianic Jews. If you follow the Messianic Jews today, having a good grasp of doctrine would be necessary. Messianic proper will accept the New Testament as scripture, and they will believe in the deity of Christ.	The Messianic Jews need to start mingling with Christians in Christianity. Anyways, the time has arrived to introduce Israel.
On the Mystery of this Ministry	God likes to keep things secret, and then later, He likes to reveal the matter. Time and time again, He has done this. What will be revealed will be revealed. Ezekiel 36 has been revealed here recently.	Today, it's not known what the seal of God in the fifth trumpet is all about.
On the Results of this Ministry	From the standpoint of Israel having been established in the center of the globe and having gotten control of the globe, apart from having much better access to the gospel, the many, various applications will have much light shed on them. Much of the "how to" will be answered. The Jews, God's chosen ambassadors who will be in the visible world, will visibly demonstrate how to apply the Word of God in this life. They will not, however, do as good of a job as Jesus will do in the millennium.	Predominantly Muslim nations do not like to allow missionaries into their lands. Israel coming in and leading by force will do much. Israel will turn the world upside down 1000 times over.
On the Purpose of this Ministry	Despite people having been born in all types of cultures and religions, Israel having a certain amount of judicial power throughout the globe will give the peoples of the world a visible example of what is approved of God. It is man's basic tendency to take on the culture and religion of their birth.	The proof of the dogma that I'm touting is exhibited in the prophecies coming out of Ezekiel 36. All of it is live with 100% accuracy.
On the Results of Israel's Role	While salvation in Jesus will not be forced onto the nations, the role of Israel, on the other hand, will. Would we be born 1000 years after Israel gets control of the globe, it would be very natural to accept Israel's role because that was the time we lived in.

The statement "I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me," (ESV, John 14:6) points only to Jesus.

On Israel Leading by Force as a Universal Absolute

TOPIC	EXPLANATION	NOTES
On the Nature of Israel's Role	Yes, there will be times when the display of force from Israel will be very physical and forceful, such as in the initial generation, according to Zechariah 14. Once Israel has been set up and the nations follow Israel, Israel will be construed a blessing, according to Isaiah 19:24, in the midst of the Earth.	As it is with every incoming age, the former though patterns will have to die off.
On Universal Absolutes	A universal absolute is a working principle in place across the globe that all have to acknowledge. Up to the present, the function of government, a working principle that all the peoples of the world have to adhere to, would probably be the best example. Universal truths are different than universal absolutes. The existence of the sun is a universal truth, but who created it is not a universal truth because all 4000 religions ascribe the creation of the sun to their god. I like to think of universal absolutes as being on a higher plane of truth than just scientific truth. The existence and function of government, which has not always been here, is a universal absolute. Once Israel gets control of the globe, that will serve as a universal absolute. Once it has been proven that Israel will remain in the center of the Earth into perpetuity, that will also serve as a universal absolute.	The time that you lived will shape your thinking. All religious people do this. Then man looks into the mirror and says that God believes what I believe. Since God is invisible, it should be questioned whether God does believe what you believe.
On Foreign Concepts	In the early part of the 21st century, a nation sitting in the center of the Earth, leading the body of Christ and even secular nations by force, is a foreign concept. However, this "foreign concept" is splattered throughout the Bible. The time you live in will shape your thinking.	Rather than immediately writing me off, be willing to question whether God does believe what you believe.
Leading by Force is NOT a Foreign Concept	Parents will not ask their children whether they can lead them. While this may not be referring to as leading by force, but it is an example. Government leading a nation is another example where authority leads by force. God being invisible gives rise to the temptation to make him out to be any god you want him to be. Even in the body of Christ across the globe, you have to ask the question which denomination is the closest to God. The reason we drop the issue is that we have no way to verify our findings. God, who has chosen to be invisible, has selected Israel to be the leader. The time will come when Israel will lead by force, proving that Israel comes from God.	The world's religions add people by people being born into the religion. The upcoming center of Messianic Judaism will sit in the center of the Earth, giving the nations the choice to convert to the Bible religion. Yes, the gospel of Jesus will be included.

The incoming era will be much better than the one we're coming out of.

On Israel Leading the Nations

TOPIC	EXPLANATION	NOTES
On God Being Invisible	The 4000 religions and 45,0000 denominations are a testament to God remaining invisible. Each domain thinks they are following God. God remaining invisible allows the nations to make God out to be any god they want Him to be. God being invisible leads to all sorts of interpretations of the Bible. When you can see the leader, it is far easier to follow the leader. In the current situation, you can see the leaders in each of the denominations, but there hasn't been a God-ordained leader to lead the entire bunch. God remaining invisible allows Christian leaders to form their own interpretations and applications of scripture without verification that their interpretation is the correct one. Without a God-ordained central figure, the myriads of denominations will only continue to splinter more and more into even more myriads of denominations. Often times, we are guessing whether the direction is correct. There is a need for a visible, God-ordained leader. Yes, God's work has been in Christianity.	All 45,000 Christian denominations have the same Bible. The three main strands in Christianity, the Roman Catholics, the Protestants and the Charismatics all view their strand as the correct strand in the realm of serving God. What do you do with the upcoming religion of (Messianic) Judaism ^{5a} that will be coming out of Israel?
On the Call of Israel	The call of Israel, according to Isaiah 49:6, is to be a light to the nations. This call played out means Israel, to an extent, will be given global jurisdiction. This is not to force salvation only found in Christ onto the peoples of the world, but to be a visible token of that salvation. The longevity of Israel, which will be many millions of years, will run juxtaposed to the other nations which will continually rise, only to fall. The phrase "light to the nations" comes without an application, but other verses in the Bible provide the application. In light of life on Earth in the era called Christianity, being a light to the nations sounds like being an example or something close to it, when the actual application reaches much further than just being an example. The call of Israel is to be the visible, God-ordained, central figure as the leader. ^{5b} And the covenants were made with the Jews, putting them in the lead. ^{5c}	Nations who want to lengthen their time in power need not only be pro-Israel, but once Israel starts to lead, the nations need to follow. All people are sheep in need of a visible shepherd going in the same direction.
On the Time & Place of Your Birth	The time and place of your birth will do much to shape your thinking. Had anyone of us been born 2500 years ago, we would have walked the Earth with a different value and belief system. Looking into the mirror and seeing someone who serves God is something that all religious folk do, without there being a green checkmark on top of their head confirming that they are, in fact, following God.	All religious people think they are following God. Jesus Christ will be in the middle of the upcoming Judaism in Israel. Yes, Jesus alone is the Savior.
With myriads of different domains in Christendom and everyone going in different directions, you simply cannot say that God believes what all these people believe.

On Israel Leading the Bride of Christ

TOPIC	EXPLANATION	NOTES
The Analogy of the Children of Israel	The requirement for all of the children of Israel to enter the promise land was total obedience in the said area. Achan, who was one man, messed up, and while he paid for his sin, it had an effect on the entire camp. The train of progress temporarily came to a complete stop. The central figure was Moses, whereas regarding the ἐκκλησία, the central figure, Israel, has yet to form. The specific requirements are given. The schedule was given to the children of Israel. The mark of the beast and the resurrection take place somewhere in the context of the supercontinent in the Apocalypse.	Is the bride preparing herself a promise or a prophecy? This is the bride making herself ready. With 45,000 denominations strong, the bride has been getting bigger, but not ready.
On the Need of a Central Figure	The pope, not having been given jurisdiction across the body of Christ, is not that God-ordained leader. With Christianity and the Messianic movement acting as separate ministries at present, steps could be to 1) dialogue and 2) the Messianics could form a board as a start.	The Messianics I sign up under will hold to the New Testament as scripture, and they will attest to the deity of Christ.
On Preparing to Meet the Bride	The bride, according to Revelation 19:7, will make herself ready to meet the bridegroom. This is not Jesus straightening out the kinks at His return, but rather the ἐκκλησία preparing herself while yet here on the Earth. Without a God-ordained leader leading the entire bunch, the only thing that will happen is more splintering and guessing at the applications found in the Bible.	It's too early to attempt to come up with a detailed list of criteria for the bride to fulfill. What is upon us is the Jews getting control of the ἐκκλησία.
On Israel Leading by Force	A nation sitting in the center of the Earth leading by force is a foreign concept in secular and in religious circles. God is not going to make anyone become a follower of Christ, but from the get-go, He did have a plan to have some kind of visible token/leader in the Earth to prove what the right road is. Today, all religions, including Christianity, are comprised of a set of beliefs and practices, without there being a way to provide evidence of the correct path. In 21st century language, Israel sitting in the center of the Earth leading the globe by force may sound like acting as a bully, but that is far from the case. The purpose is to provide divine direction.	While a nation sitting in the center of the Earth leading by force sounds like a foreign concept today, leading by force is not completely novel.

The Amish believe my parents will burn in hell forever because they don't drive a horse and buggy to church and are not members in good standing of an Amish church.

Once it has been proven that Israel will remain in the center of the Earth into perpetuity, that will also serve as a universal absolute.	The time that you lived will shape your thinking. All religious people do this. Then man looks into the mirror and says that God believes what I believe. Since God is invisible, it should be questioned whether God does believe what you believe.
On Foreign Concepts	In the early part of the 21st century, a nation sitting in the center of the Earth, leading the body of Christ and even secular nations by force, is a foreign concept. However, this "foreign concept" is splattered throughout the Bible. The time you live in will shape your thinking.	Rather than immediately writing me off, be willing to question whether God does believe what you believe.
Leading by Force is NOT a Foreign Concept	Parents will not ask their children whether they can lead them. While this may not be referring to as leading by force, but it is an example. Government leading a nation is another example where authority leads by force. God being invisible gives rise to the temptation to make him out to be any god you want him to be. Even in the body of Christ across the globe, you have to ask the question which denomination is the closest to God. The reason we drop the issue is that we have no way to verify our findings. God, who has chosen to be invisible, has selected Israel to be the leader. The time will come when Israel will lead by force, proving that Israel comes from God.	The world's religions add people by people being born into the religion. The upcoming center of Messianic Judaism will sit in the center of the Earth, giving the nations the choice to convert to the Bible religion. Yes, the gospel of Jesus will be included.

The incoming era will be much better than the one we're coming out of.

On Israel Leading the Nations

TOPIC	EXPLANATION	NOTES
On God Being Invisible	The 4000 religions and 45,0000 denominations are a testament to God remaining invisible. Each domain thinks they are following God. God remaining invisible allows the nations to make God out to be any god they want Him to be. God being invisible leads to all sorts of interpretations of the Bible. When you can see the leader, it is far easier to follow the leader. In the current situation, you can see the leaders in each of the denominations, but there hasn't been a God-ordained leader to lead the entire bunch. God remaining invisible allows Christian leaders to form their own interpretations and applications of scripture without verification that their interpretation is the correct one. Without a God-ordained central figure, the myriads of denominations will only continue to splinter more and more into even more myriads of denominations. Often times, we are guessing whether the direction is correct. There is a need for a visible, God-ordained leader. Yes, God's work has been in Christianity.	All 45,000 Christian denominations have the same Bible. The three main strands in Christianity, the Roman Catholics, the Protestants and the Charismatics all view their strand as the correct strand in the realm of serving God. What do you do with the upcoming religion of (Messianic) Judaism ^{5a} that will be coming out of Israel?
On the Call of Israel	The call of Israel, according to Isaiah 49:6, is to be a light to the nations. This call played out means Israel, to an extent, will be given global jurisdiction. This is not to force salvation only found in Christ onto the peoples of the world, but to be a visible token of that salvation. The longevity of Israel, which will be many millions of years, will run juxtaposed to the other nations which will continually rise, only to fall. The phrase "light to the nations" comes without an application, but other verses in the Bible provide the application. In light of life on Earth in the era called Christianity, being a light to the nations sounds like being an example or something close to it, when the actual application reaches much further than just being an example. The call of Israel is to be the visible, God-ordained, central figure as the leader. ^{5b} And the covenants were made with the Jews, putting them in the lead. ^{5c}	Nations who want to lengthen their time in power need not only be pro-Israel, but once Israel starts to lead, the nations need to follow. All people are sheep in need of a visible shepherd going in the same direction.
On the Time & Place of Your Birth	The time and place of your birth will do much to shape your thinking. Had anyone of us been born 2500 years ago, we would have walked the Earth with a different value and belief system. Looking into the mirror and seeing someone who serves God is something that all religious folk do, without there being a green checkmark on top of their head confirming that they are, in fact, following God.	All religious people think they are following God. Jesus Christ will be in the middle of the upcoming Judaism in Israel. Yes, Jesus alone is the Savior.
With myriads of different domains in Christendom and everyone going in different directions, you simply cannot say that God believes what all these people believe.

On Israel Leading the Bride of Christ

TOPIC	EXPLANATION	NOTES
The Analogy of the Children of Israel	The requirement for all of the children of Israel to enter the promise land was total obedience in the said area. Achan, who was one man, messed up, and while he paid for his sin, it had an effect on the entire camp. The train of progress temporarily came to a complete stop. The central figure was Moses, whereas regarding the ἐκκλησία, the central figure, Israel, has yet to form. The specific requirements are given. The schedule was given to the children of Israel. The mark of the beast and the resurrection take place somewhere in the context of the supercontinent in the Apocalypse.	Is the bride preparing herself a promise or a prophecy? This is the bride making herself ready. With 45,000 denominations strong, the bride has been getting bigger, but not ready.
On the Need of a Central Figure	The pope , not having been given jurisdiction across the body of Christ, is not that God-ordained leader. With Christianity and the Messianic movement acting as separate ministries at present, steps could be to 1) dialogue and 2) the Messianics could form a board as a start.	The Messianics I sign up under will hold to the New Testament as scripture, and they will attest to the deity of Christ.
On Preparing to Meet the Bride	The bride, according to Revelation 19:7, will make herself ready to meet the bridegroom. This is not Jesus straightening out the kinks at His return, but rather the ἐκκλησία preparing herself while yet here on the Earth. Without a God-ordained leader leading the entire bunch, the only thing that will happen is more splintering and guessing at the applications found in the Bible.	It's too early to attempt to come up with a detailed list of criteria for the bride to fulfill. What is upon us is the Jews getting control of the ἐκκλησία.
On Israel Leading by Force	A nation sitting in the center of the Earth leading by force is a foreign concept in secular and in religious circles. God is not going to make anyone become a follower of Christ, but from the get-go, He did have a plan to have some kind of visible token/leader in the Earth to prove what the right road is. Today, all religions, including Christianity, are comprised of a set of beliefs and practices, without there being a way to provide evidence of the correct path. In 21st century language, Israel sitting in the center of the Earth leading the globe by force may sound like acting as a bully, but that is far from the case. The purpose is to provide divine direction.	While a nation sitting in the center of the Earth leading by force sounds like a foreign concept today, leading by force is not completely novel.
The Amish believe my parents will burn in hell forever because they don't drive a horse and buggy to church and are not members in good standing of an Amish church.
