On the Prophecy of Immigration

TOPIC	EXPLANATION	NOTES
On the Prophecy of the Return of the Jews to Israel	Ezekiel 36:24, the core verse on the very well-known prophecy of the return of the Jews to Israel, is surrounded by numerous other prophecies also being fulfilled, proving the authenticity of this prophecy. In Ezekiel 38:8, the immigration prophecy surfaces again, and by Ezekiel 39:28, none of the Jews will be left among the nations. All Jews will have returned to Israel.	It takes four generations for mixed blood to become pure. Jacob's blood will endure for many millions of years.
On the Big Picture	The Jews are returning to Israel because the ministry of Israel is in the process of getting set up. God, who is invisible, has chosen a visible people group, the Jews, to be His ambassadors to the nations. They will be responsible for promoting the name of Jesus and the application for believers throughout the globe. Israel, which will have judicial power over the globe, ^{1a} will promote God's name.	All religious people think that God believes what they believe. The Jew, as the God-ordained leader, is called to lead by force.
On Immigration and the Return of Jesus Christ	One reason the prophecy of immigration is left alone is because it doesn't really jive with the return of Jesus. What would the tribulation do to immigration? What would the rapture do to immigration? If Jesus would return in the next 20 years, what would He do? Judge the world? If that's the case, what would happen to immigration, and why are the Jews returning to Israel? So that Jesus could return? For immigration to continue and even finish, time is needed, not Jesus' return. Further, immigration began before Jesus' return. It isn't necessary to always put Jesus' return up front.	20th century eschatology is not equipped to handle the prophecy or the theology of what is taking place in Israel in the 21st century. The pegs of 21st century history in Israel fit perfectly into Ezekiel 36.
On the Prophecies Surrounding the Return of the Jews to Israel	Ezekiel 36:24, the core text of immigration of the Jews, is not an isolated prophecy concerning Israel. Ezekiel 36, covering all of modern Israel, is being fulfilled in its entirety, proving immigration is a prophecy along with the other prophecies. Immigration, the Messianic Jewish movement, the Torah Observant movement, the Arab-Israeli conflict, and the economic indicators in Israel all come out of Ezekiel 36. Since the Bible religions of the 21st century would be highly developed, the wisdom of God had these prophecies emphasize the literal aspect rather than the doctrinal aspect.	These prophecies still being near the beginning of the ordeal raises questions on the timing of the end of the world. The Lord has delayed His return by at least 2000 years, verifying Matthew 24:48-51 as prophetic.

This lesson should be preceded by a full presentation of Ezekiel 36.

On Other Matters

TOPIC	EXPLANATION	NOTES
On Obstacles regarding Immigration	Touting an imminent tribulation would point towards a global destruction of the world's infrastructure, which would, in the very least, halt global immigration of the Jews to Israel for a season. Nowhere in the Ezekiel 36-48 series on Israel is the tribulation referred to directly or indirectly. Immigration of the Jews to Israel began before the tribulation, meaning the tribulation is not going to bring immigration to a total, permanent halt. The Ezekiel 36-39 series on Israeli prophecies has immigration continue until finished. Moreover, what effort the Arabs make to undo immigration will be a waste of time.	The Jews, according to Amos 9:14-15, will never again be uprooted from their homeland. The Amos 9:14-15 passage on the Jews relocating to Israel is not the main passage on Immigration.
On the Number of Jews to Return to Israel	From the early to the mid-19th century, the Jews were trickling back into the Holy Land, and by 1882, 24,000 Jews had congregated in Israel, with 7.4 million Jews by birth having had returned to Israel by 2024. ^{2a} At the going rate, by somewhere in the middle of the 23rd century, this prophecy should have finished. The body of Christ is not acquainted with reaching out hundreds of years into the future, but you need to get used to it. Immigration easily reaches hundreds of years into the future. The Lord is behind the Jews returning to Israel which is why no man will hinder this prophecy.	There is no need to turn a blind eye to the immigration prophecy because it doesn't jive with 20th century eschatology. 20th century eschatology is stationary, whereas Ezekiel 36 moves.
On the Purpose of the Return of the Jews to Israel	The Jews are not returning to their homeland for a mere fulfillment of prophecy. Neither are they returning to Israel so that the end of the world can take place! There must be a purpose in God's work in the Earth. Immigration is taking place because there is a purpose for the Jews in Israel. God's call for the Jews, to act as a light to the nations or to lead, is in the process of getting set up. ^{2b}	The body of Christ across the globe wrongfully takes all prophecy and links it up to the end of the world when the ministry of Israel has yet to get set up.
On Why the Return of the Jews to Israel is so Well-known	God declared in Ezekiel 28:25 and 39:27 that He would bring the Jews back to their homeland in the sight of all the nations. This is why when discussing the topic in China, someone, who is totally lost and unchurched, will know about the immigration of the Jewish people. God is also having Israel's rise to power take place before the entire world. God is purposely having Israel's rise to power take place in front of the whole world as to introduce Israel to the world. Israel's call will cover the globe.	There are wars and scenarios that are far more devastating than what is taking place between the Jews and the Muslims. "In the sight of the nations" appears in Ezekiel seven times.

Israel has never fulfilled her call to be a light to the nations. It took six thousand years to set up the foundation of Israel, yet Israeli history is near the beginning.

On the Future Outlook of Immigration

TOPIC	EXPLANATION	NOTES
On the Surety of Immigration	Since God, the author of the immigration of Jews to Israel, has declared that He would be behind the return of the Jews to Israel, we can know with 100% surety that immigration will continue until finished without interference from man. Further, there is no need to confuse the return of the Jews to Israel with end times prophecies.	Any other prophecy in the Bible that might interfere with Ezekiel 36 would be a temporal matter.
On the Application	TO THE JEWS: Jews in Israel should encourage Jews outside of Israel to return to Israel, especially during times of persecution. The Jews need to acknowledge that they belong in Israel! To all Jews: you have been gone for 1000s of years, and now, Israel is calling you home! By Ezekiel 39, Israel will be the only place the Jews will be allowed to be in. If you are Jewish, you may want to think about making Aliyah in your lifetime. If you don't make Aliyah, your descendants most certainly will.	The Jews are not returning to Israel so that the end of the world can take place. There's no logic in the matter. They are returning to Israel because their ministry to be a light to the nations is in the process of getting set up. The call of the Jew is to lead from the center of the Earth, and in order for that to happen, the Jews must return to Israel.
	TO THE GENTILES: Don't persecute Jews, and don't persecute Jews just to incite immigration. Bless a Jew, and God will bless you. Calling Jews to return to Israel could be a sermon application.
	TO GOVERNMENTS: Don't hinder immigration. Rather, encourage it peacefully.
On the Next 5–30 Years	You can expect immigration to continue. Only seldom do the Jews return to Israel in droves of hundreds of thousands, but it does happen. The overall average stands at 45,000 per annum, coming to over 100 each day. Maybe the Lord is having the Jews return at a slower pace in order to enable Israel to keep up with the housing demands.	It's hard to speak of the future of the return of the Jews and call it prophesying because it is so easy. However, it is prophesying.
On the Next 100–1000 Years	At the going rate, immigration of Jews should be finishing up somewhere in the middle of the 23rd century. The Internet reports the official number of Jews to be right around 16 million. There are some reports that the descendants of Jacob number much more. If that is the case, and if the Jews, once in control of the situation, call for the bigger number to also return to Israel, the amount of time that immigration will take up will be much longer. To the believer in the present ἐκκλησία, dealing with 100s or 1000s of years is a foreign concept. However, the Lord has delayed His return by, at least, 2000 years, and in order to execute the ministry of Israel, His return will be delayed even further.	Secular historians and economists can, to an extent, portray an accurate projection of the future of Israel, but some prophecies, such as the Messianic Jewish movement, the Torah Observant movement, and the Arab-Israeli conflict are subject to prophecy, not projections.

We cannot see God, but we can see His wisdom at work. Regarding the immigration prophecy, there isn't much to argue about because it is in the seen world.

On the Prophecy of Immigration

TOPIC	EXPLANATION	NOTES
On the Prophecy of the Return of the Jews to Israel	Ezekiel 36:24, the core verse on the very well-known prophecy of the return of the Jews to Israel, is surrounded by numerous other prophecies also being fulfilled, proving the authenticity of this prophecy. In Ezekiel 38:8, the immigration prophecy surfaces again, and by Ezekiel 39:28, none of the Jews will be left among the nations. All Jews will have returned to Israel.	It's takes four generations for mixed blood to become pure. Jacob's blood will endure for many millions of years.
On the Big Picture	The Jews are returning to Israel because the ministry of Israel is in the process of getting set up. God, who is invisible, has chosen a visible people group, the Jews, to be His ambassadors to the nations. They will be responsible for promoting the name of Jesus and the application for believers throughout the globe. Israel, which will have judicial power over the globe, ^{1a} will promote God's name.	All religious people think that God believes what they believe. The Jew, as the God-ordained leader, is called to lead by force.
On Immigration and the Return of Jesus Christ	One reason the prophecy of immigration is left alone is because it doesn't really jive with the return of Jesus. What would the tribulation do to immigration? What would the rapture do to immigration? If Jesus would return in the next 20 years, what would He do? Judge the world? If that's the case, what would happen to immigration, and why are the Jews be returning to Israel? So that Jesus could return? For immigration to continue and even finish, time is needed, not Jesus' return. Further, immigration began before Jesus' return. It isn't necessary to always put Jesus' return up front.	20th century eschatology is not equipped to handle the prophecy or the theology of what is taking place in Israel in the 21st century. The pegs of 21st century history in Israel fits perfectly into Ezekiel 36.
On the Prophecies Surrounding the Return of the Jews to Israel	Ezekiel 36:24, the core text of immigration of the Jews, is not an isolated prophecy concerning Israel. Ezekiel 36, covering all of modern Israel, is being fulfilled in its entirety, proving immigration is a prophecy along with the other prophecies. Immigration, the Messianic Jewish movement, the Torah Observant movement, the Arab-Israeli conflict, and the economic indicators in Israel all come out of Ezekiel 36. Since the Bible religions of the 21st century would be highly developed, the wisdom of God had these prophecies emphasize the literal aspect rather than the doctrinal aspect.	These prophecies still being near the beginning of the ordeal raises questions on the timing of the end of the world. The Lord has delayed His return by at least 2000 years, verifying Matthew 24:48-51 as prophetic.
On the Surety of Immigration	Since God, the author of the immigration of Jews to Israel, has declared that He would be behind the return of the Jews to Israel, we can know with 100% surety that immigration will continue until finished without interference from man.	Any other prophecy in the Bible that might interfere with Ezekiel 36 would be a temporal matter.

This lesson should be preceded by a full presentation of Ezekiel 36.

On Other Matters

TOPIC	EXPLANATION	NOTES
On the Purpose of the Return of the Jews to Israel	The Jews are not returning to their homeland for a mere fulfillment of prophecy. Neither are they returning to Israel so that the end of the world can take place! There must be a purpose in God's work in the Earth. Immigration is taking place because there is a purpose for the Jews in Israel. God's call for the Jews, to act as a light to the nations or to lead, is in the process of getting set up. ^{2b}	The body of Christ across the globe wrongfully takes all prophecy and links it up to the end of the world when the ministry of Israel has yet to get set up.
On Why the Return of the Jews to Israel is so Well-known	God declared in Ezekiel 28:25 and 39:27 that He would bring the Jews back to their homeland in the sight of all the nations. This is why when discussing the topic in China, someone, who is totally lost and unchurched, will know about the immigration of the Jewish people. God is also having Israel's rise to power take place before the entire world. God is purposely having Israel's rise to power take place in front of the whole world as to introduce Israel to the world. Israel's call will cover the globe.	There are wars and scenarios that are far more devastating than what is taking place between the Jews and the Muslims. "In the sight of the nations" appears in Ezekiel seven times.
On the Application	TO THE JEWS: Jews in Israel should encourage Jews outside of Israel to return to Israel, especially during times of persecution. The Jews need to acknowledge that they belong in Israel! To all Jews: you have been gone for 1000s of years, and now, Israel is calling you home! By Ezekiel 39, Israel will be the only place the Jews will be allowed to be in. If you are Jewish, you may want to think about making Aliyah in your lifetime. If you don't make Aliyah, your descendants most certainly will.	The Jews are not returning to Israel so that the end of the world can take place. There's no logic in the matter. They are returning to Israel because their ministry to be a light to the nations is in the process of getting set up. The call of the Jew is to lead from the center of the Earth, and in order for that to happen, the Jews must return to Israel.
	TO THE GENTILES: Don't persecute Jews, and don't persecute Jews just to incite immigration. Bless a Jew, and God will bless you. Calling Jews to return to Israel could be a sermon application.
	TO GOVERNMENTS: Don't hinder immigration. Rather, encourage it peacefully.
On the Next 100-1000 Years	At the going rate, immigration of Jews should be finishing up somewhere in the middle of the 23rd century. The Internet reports the official number of Jews to be right around 16 million. There are some reports that the descendants of Jacob number much more. If that is the case, and if the Jews, once in control of the situation, call for the bigger number to also return to Israel, the amount of time that immigration will take up will be much longer. To the believer in the present ἐκκλησία , dealing with 100s or 1000s of years is a foreign concept. However, the Lord has delayed His return by, at least, 2000 years, and in order to execute the ministry of Israel, His return will be delayed even further.	Secular historians and economists can, to an extent, portray an accurate projection of the future of Israel, but some prophecies, such as the Messianic Jewish movement, the Torah Observant movement, and the Arab-Israeli conflict are subject to prophecy, not projections.
